Greetings, Readers and Riders of the Rails!!

If you recall from our last issue, I sent out a challenge for all railroad readers of The Mutual, to be on the lookout to see if the five historic railroad stations as depicted on the recent sheet of USPS postage stamps, still look the way they do in the stamps. I am pleased to say that we have a report from our very own Mary Gibney regarding the station in Tamaqua, Pennsylvania. Mary sent this article to me about the preservation of the railroad station. All information and pictures (except the pictures of the stamps) are from the following website: <http://www.tamaquastation.com/>

Next Stop, the Tamaqua Railroad Station! Take a step into the past as you enter Tamaqua's restored 1874 Philadelphia & Reading Railroad. Saved from the brink of demolition, the Tamaqua Railroad Station now serves as a heritage center, as well as a cultural and economic hub in Historic Tamaqua. Be sure to make a stop at the Tamaqua Railroad Station on your next visit!

There is plenty of parking in the lot on Route 309 South. After parking, cross the tracks safely at the pedestrian crosswalk. A handicap accessible entrance is located at the rear of the Station.

Click DOWNLOAD button on website to save "Save Our Station" song and to hear an original jingle written by Tamaqua's Bill Hughes to aid the restoration efforts.

Tamaqua Station Restaurant, Hours:
 Wednesday through Saturday 11:00
 a.m.- 9:00 p.m.
 Sunday 9:00 a.m.- 3:00 p.m.
 Closed Mondays & Tuesdays.

Look at our events page for the Tamaqua Area Chamber of Commerce Concert Series.

Please visit, patronize, and make a donation to maintain the historic preservation of this beautiful railroad station.
 We need to keep as much of our history
 intact as possible.

So, one down and four more stations
 to go.

The remaining historic railroad stations are:

Point of Rocks, Maryland
 San Bernardino, California
 Cincinnati, Ohio
 Richmond, Virginia

Can anyone share with us any updates about these beautiful train stations that the U.S. Post Office decided to honor with a postage stamp? I know we have members living all across the country so someone out there should be able to send us some information about the station nearest to their hometowns.
 Just send a message and/or a photo to the home office in PA and Mary Gibney will forward the information to me.

I am hoping that maybe our dear member, Mrs. Margaret P. from Ohio, who wrote a beautiful letter to me a few years ago, will enlighten us about the historic station in Cincinnati, Ohio.

And I am also hoping we hear from our longtime correspondent, Karen Barnaba, from Baltimore, Maryland.

Maybe she can share some history and photos about the historic station in Point of Rocks, Maryland. I always thoroughly enjoyed her interesting and informative articles about the history and sites in her beautiful state of Maryland.

Tying in another topic, recently I celebrated National Ice Cream Day with two scoops of vanilla ice cream, hot fudge sauce, and strawberries on top. It was wonderful, refreshing, cooling...a terrific, sweet treat and a decades old tradition.

Years ago, then-President Reagan declared the third Sunday in July to be National Ice Cream Day. The entire month of July is also known as National Ice Cream Month, but as much as I love ice cream, I would not be able to eat it every day for a month. As a matter of fact, Americans are eating less and less ice cream per person every year. So, during this summer of intense heat, wild winds, unrelenting rain, and generally dismal weather, treat yourself to something in the ice cream family. It doesn't have to be made from dairy products. Just know that there is always a reason to celebrate any day of the year.

Now to tie in my first topic, The restored Tamaqua, PA Railroad Station has a Creamery!! So go get your sweet treat at this beautiful location and support a great cause that is near and dear to all of our hearts.

No excuses. Find a reason to celebrate Summer. Treat yourself to something sweet, indulgent, and refreshing. Support a great cause. We are all one family. A Railroad Family. We have a long history in this country. We are a multi-generational vocation. As my very proud railroad family always said, "The railroad built this country. We built this country." I am proud of everything we represent. I am proud of all of our contributions to the US over the centuries. And I am proud our railroads and stations are acknowledged and honored by our very own United States Post Office. (For those people who use electronic correspondence exclusively, and no longer send letters or packages through the mail, having your photo on a postage stamp is a really big deal. A really HUGE deal.)

Have a great summer everyone. See you in the fall.

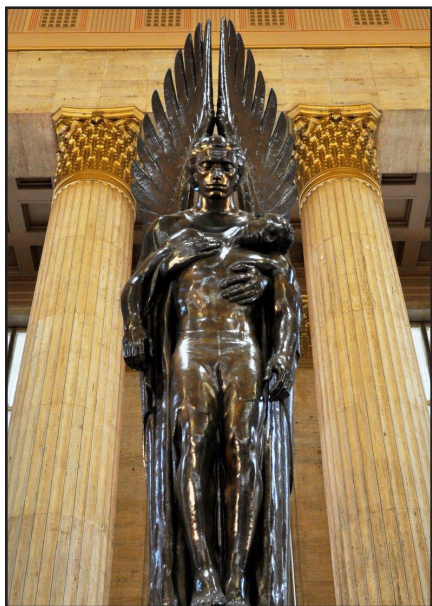

Until next time,
Kathleen Turnbull

News From Local 7 Philadelphia, PA Nancy Turnbull

Ahhhhh summer! What could be better? Well how about a trip to a new destination via a train ride? Last issue my cousin shared the new stamps featuring train stations in the US. I had hoped to see 30th Street Station in Philadelphia among the many beautiful stamps. 30th Street Station is an amazing building and holds dear memories for me, not just for being a major connector to destinations, but of a historical tribute as well.

The statue, "Angel of Resurrection" portrays Michael the Archangel holding a train employee who did not return from World War II. The statue lists all the names of fallen employees, as a tribute to their service to the Pennsylvania Railroad and our country. A family member's name is inscribed along with the 1,307 employees.

If not there, where? I've always wanted to travel across the country via train. Now that I have grandchildren, I hope to convince my daughter and son-in-law that this would be a great family trip. They'll probably let me take them on my own when they're a little older, when they're teenagers!

Or another great summer pastime is to read a good book. I love staying up very late, well into the wee hours reading until my vision is blurry. Getting up for work the next morning can be a challenge unless it's a weekend. There are many books about train adventures and train wrecks. I'll have to stop by my library and see what I can find.

Until next time, treat yourself and others well.

Nancy

It is hard to believe that summer is already here and we will be heading for Ocean City, NJ this weekend. Our landscaper has completed the spring cleanup and Betty has added hanging baskets of flowers and annuals front and back so we are set to enjoy trips and just relaxing on our back deck listening to our favorite CDs and sipping a favorite beverage. Life is good!

I know that we will not be bored. Between the Artisan activities, our friends' suggestions for various trips and destinations and new restaurants to check out, we will keep pretty busy. As we get a little older we all have some kind of ailment, but the secret is to keep busy. You don't have time to dwell on it when you are busy. So stay busy and enjoy life.

I was happy to see that Local 21 has a new correspondent and I would like to welcome Sharon Bedrin. I am certain that she will keep up the tradition of Local 21 and will be an asset to The Mutual Magazine. So let's help her out, send her some news of family members achievements. I know that she will be thrilled to report on them.

Here is an example. This year we have a grandson, Billy DeSante in Florida, who just graduated from the University of Central Florida and already has a position at Lockheed Martin Corporation. Nothing lazy about that young man.

Our great-grandson, Chase Matthews graduated from Delran High School in New Jersey and will be attending the University of Central Florida in the fall. He and his sister, Ryan, both received scholarships from the Artisans of Mutual Protection, a fraternal benefit society like MBA.

Naturally, Betty and I are extremely proud of all of them.

Speaking of the Artisans, they recently celebrated their 150th anniversary with a dinner dance at the Pennsauken Country Club. The guests were entertained by a comedian and a group that portrays the famous Rat Pack of Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and Sammy Davis, Jr. Dean Martin went over to

Rich, Chase, Tara and Ryan Matthews (LA 14)

Betty and serenaded her much to her delight. As I said, keep busy and have fun.

By the way, MBA was founded in 1913, so happy 110th anniversary to MBA.

That's all for now, I am heading for the deck.

I hope everyone is enjoying their summer months with family and friends. I have been doing some saltwater fishing, but have yet to catch a keeper fluke. I will keep trying and enjoy the time out on the water regardless of catching anything or not.

For those getting ready to retire this year, remember to do your homework and explore all your retirement options and medical plans. Retirees are a great resource to help you with your questions. Their experience and knowledge is invaluable help for you. Some of these options can't be changed once selected and some only at special times of the year.

Enjoy and have a safe rest of your summer regardless of what you do.

MOVING

In recent years more and more MBA members are moving without notifying the Home Office of their new address. We urge all members to keep addresses up to date on the MBA files. It could make a difference in receiving your monthly magazine or even paying your beneficiaries.

If you are moving or have moved recently please be sure to notify the MBA Home Office (see page 1) so that you don't miss out on any of MBA's many benefits.

U.S. Railroad Retirement Board

RRB NEWS

Office of Public Affairs
844 North Rush Street
Chicago, IL 60611-1275 (312) 751-4777

RRB Issues Statements of Service

Each year, the U.S. Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) prepares a Form BA-6, Certificate of Service Months and Compensation, for every railroad employee with creditable railroad compensation in the previous calendar year. The RRB will mail the forms to employees during the first half of June. Anyone with compensation reported in 2022 who has not received Form BA-6 by July 1, or who needs a replacement, should contact an RRB field office by calling toll-free at 1-877-772-5772. A statement can also be requested online by clicking the “Request Documents” button at RRB.gov/myRRB, or by using the toll-free number’s automated menu at the end of the recorded greeting to request a statement of service months and compensation.

Form BA-6 provides employees with a record of their railroad retirement service and compensation. The information shown is used to determine whether an employee qualifies for benefits and the amount of those benefits; therefore, it is important that employees review their Form BA-6 to see whether their own records of service months and creditable compensation agree with the form.

When reviewing the 2022 compensation total, employees should be aware that only annual earnings up to $147,000 are creditable for railroad retirement purposes in that year, and that $147,000 is the maximum amount shown on the form. In addition, the form shows service credited on a month-by-month basis for 2021, 2020, and 2019, when the maximum creditable compensation was $142,800, $137,700, and $132,900, respectively. The BA-6 also lists the employer(s) reporting the employee’s 2022 service and compensation.
